FOREWORD

The Occupational Safety Manual was developed to provide guidance to all levels of a command on the prevention or elimination of conditions and work practices that could result in injury to employees, loss or damage to CHP property, and to provide employees with a safe and healthy work environment.

The objectives of this manual are to prevent or eliminate suffering by employees, economic losses to themselves and their families, and to conserve the resources of the CHP.

Questions about this manual should be directed to the Office of Risk Management, Occupational Safety Unit.
