FOREWORD

The responsibilities of the CHP have expanded beyond traffic law enforcement to include many areas of general law enforcement. As a statewide agency, it is essential the Department pursue a fair, impartial, and consistent enforcement policy. This manual provides the policies and procedures necessary for field personnel to achieve this goal. The employment of sound, professional judgement is the basic criteria for all field enforcement actions.

Questions concerning the contents of this manual should be directed to the appropriate Office of Primary Interest (OPI), as listed in the main table of contents.
