FOREWORD

The purpose of this manual is to condense all applicable award publications and directions into one source.

The objective of this manual is to specify award classifications and criteria and establish procedures for submitting award nominations. Provisions for honoring departmental employees, allied public service agencies, and citizens who perform acts or services worthy of recognition are contained within this publication.

Other information and procedures on the subject of awards, formerly contained in other departmental publications, have been consolidated into this manual. The Office of Primary Interest (OPI) for each award varies. There are three separate Divisions responsible for the awards contained in this manual. The OPI for each award is specified in the corresponding chapter.

Any inquiries or comments relating to the contents of this manual should be directed to the Office of the Commissioner, Commissioner's Support Unit. Any inquiries regarding a particular award should be directed to the OPI for that award.
