A. SENATE BILL 719 – POLICE PURSUITS

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Introduction

On October 4, 2005, Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger signed Senate Bill 719 (Romero and Margett). This law, which went into effect January 1, 2006, requires law enforcement agencies to establish pursuit policies, provide ongoing pursuit training to their officers, and ensure all pursuits are documented and submitted to the California Highway Patrol (CHP) within 30 days. The CHP is required to submit an annual report to the Legislature that includes, but is not limited to:

- The total number of pursuits reported to the CHP during that year.
- The total number of pursuits involving a crash in which an injury or fatality to an uninvolved third party occurred.
- The total number of uninvolved third parties who were injured or killed as a result of those crashes.

Statistical Data

The following 2022 data reflects information submitted by CHP field commands and other California law enforcement agencies pursuant to Section 14602.1 of the California Vehicle Code. Federal agencies are not subject to the reporting requirements; thus, the data does not encompass pursuits by federal agencies. The report has been compiled utilizing 2022 data entered into the Department's Pursuit Reporting System as of April 7, 2023. Due to rounding percentages to the nearest tenth of a decimal, the percentages contained in this Report may not add to 100 percent.

A total of 11,985 police pursuits were reported to the CHP during 2022. Of these, a total of 2,275 (19.0 percent) pursuits resulted in a crash. Of the reported crashes:

- 1,445 (63.5 percent) were property-damage-only crashes.
- 798 (35.1 percent) were injury crashes.
- 32 (1.4 percent) were fatal crashes, which resulted in 34 deaths.

Of the 34 deaths:

- 24 (70.6 percent) were the drivers of the pursued vehicle.
- 5 (14.7 percent) were passengers in the pursued vehicle.
- 5 (14.7 percent) were an uninvolved third party.
- There were no law enforcement officer fatalities.

Of the 798 injury crashes, 1,345 people were injured. Of the injured parties:

- 586 (43.6 percent) were the drivers of the pursued vehicle.
- 283 (21.0 percent) were passengers in the pursued vehicle.
- 406 (30.2 percent) were uninvolved third parties.
- 70 (5.2 percent) were law enforcement officers.

The CHP was involved in 3,736 vehicle pursuits in 2022 (including multiagency pursuits). A total of 547 (14.6 percent) of CHP pursuits resulted in a crash. Of the reported crashes:

- 345 (63.1 percent) were property-damage-only crashes.
- 187 (34.2 percent) were injury crashes.
- 15 (2.7 percent) were fatal crashes, which resulted in 15 deaths.

Of the 15 deaths:

- 13 (86.7 percent) were the drivers of the pursued vehicle.
- 1 (6.7 percent) was a passenger in the pursued vehicle.
- 1 (6.7 percent) was an uninvolved third party.
- There were no CHP officer fatalities.

Of the 187 injury crashes, 316 people were injured. Of the injured parties:

- 150 (47.5 percent) were the drivers of the pursued vehicle.
- 77 (24.4 percent) were passengers in the pursued vehicle.
- 79 (25.0 percent) were uninvolved third parties.
- 10 (3.2 percent) were law enforcement officers.

Conclusion

There were 11,985 Statewide pursuits in 2022, compared to 12,513 in 2021, a decrease of 4.2 percent. There were 3,736 pursuits involving CHP personnel in 2022, compared to 4,161 in 2021, a decrease of 10.2 percent.

Statewide, the majority of initiating violations prior to a pursuit involved speeding, stolen vehicles, registration/license plate violations, failure to obey traffic control devices at an intersection, and reckless driving. Although many pursuits were initiated during traffic stops for infractions, many of the suspects captured were charged with serious felony and misdemeanor crimes. In addition to evading arrest, the top seven crimes reported as the most serious crimes charged upon apprehension were: vehicle theft, driving under the influence, suspended/unlicensed driver, larceny, assault with a deadly weapon, resisting arrest, and felon in possession of a firearm. In approximately 32.1 percent of all pursuit related apprehensions in 2022, the most serious charge came from this group of seven crimes.

The majority of pursuits terminated quickly, with 72.8 percent terminating within the first five miles of initiation. The most common reason for the termination of a pursuit was the pursuit being aborted by law enforcement due to public safety, which occurred in 30.7 percent of all pursuits.

Pursuits involving air support reported an apprehension rate of 78.6 percent, while pursuits not involving air support reported an apprehension rate of 46.6 percent.

The percentage of pursuits resulting in a crash decreased for statewide pursuits from 20.1 percent in 2021 to 19.0 percent in 2022, a decrease of 5.5 percent, and in CHP-involved pursuits from 16.1 percent in 2021 to 14.6 percent in 2022, a decrease of 9.3 percent.

REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE

SENATE BILL 719

2022 POLICE PURSUITS

Introduction

A vehicle pursuit is defined as an event involving one or more law enforcement officers attempting to apprehend a suspect operating a motor vehicle while the suspect is attempting to avoid arrest by using high speed driving or other evasive tactics, such as driving off a highway, turning suddenly, or driving in a legal manner, but willfully failing to yield to the officer's signal to stop. On October 4, 2005, Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger signed SB 719 (Romero and Margett, see Annex B.) The provisions of SB 719, which went into effect January 1, 2006, requires law enforcement agencies to establish pursuit policies, provide ongoing pursuit training to their officers, and ensure all pursuits are documented and submitted to the California Highway Patrol (CHP) within 30 days of the pursuit event. The CHP is required to submit an annual report to the Legislature which includes, but is not limited to: the total number of pursuits reported to the CHP during that year, the total number of pursuits involving a crash in which an injury or fatality to an uninvolved third party occurred, and the total number of uninvolved third parties who were injured or killed as a result of those crashes.

The CHP maintains the Pursuit Reporting System (PRS), which provides the ability to automate pursuit reporting, review, and critique processes. The PRS is comprised of a Web-based front-end application, and a Microsoft Structured Query Language database back-end application. The PRS includes information received from allied law enforcement agencies throughout California via the CHP 187A, Allied Agency Pursuit Report. The CHP 187A is submitted via mail, electronic mail, or facsimile to the Data Analysis Unit within the CHP's Support Services Section.

Statistical Data

The following 2022 data reflects information submitted by city, county and state law enforcement agencies within California, and compiled by the CHP pursuant to Section 14602.1 of the California Vehicle Code. Federal agencies are not subject to the reporting requirements; therefore, this report does not contain pursuit data submitted by federal agencies. The report has been compiled based on CHP 187A forms submitted to the CHP by April 7, 2023, for calendar year 2022.

Part I: All California Law Enforcement Agencies

A total of 11,985 police pursuits were reported to the CHP during 2022. Of these, a total of 2,275 (19.0 percent) resulted in a crash. Of the reported crashes, 1,445 (63.5 percent) were property damage-only crashes, 798 (35.1 percent) were injury crashes, and 32 (1.4 percent) were fatal crashes.

There were no law enforcement officer fatalities reported from a pursuit crash in 2022.

The 798 injury crashes resulted in 1,345 individuals sustaining injuries. Statewide Crash Fatalities

Statewide Crash Injuries

Statewide, law enforcement agencies initiate enforcement stops for a variety of reasons. In a small number of these enforcement actions, a suspect fails to yield to law enforcement and a vehicle pursuit ensues. Most initiating violations observed prior to a pursuit involve speeding, stolen vehicles, registration/license plate violations, failing to obey traffic control devices at a controlled intersection, and reckless driving. The most serious offense charged upon apprehension after a pursuit varies significantly compared to the initial violation.

Most pursuits terminate quickly with the largest number of pursuits ending within the first five minutes and first five miles of initiation. The termination point in approximately 72.8 percent of all pursuits reported in 2022, was within five miles of the origination point. The following tables outline the total number of pursuits by distance and time:

Statewide Count of Total Pursuits by Distance (Minutes)

Minutes	# of Pursuits	% of Pursuits
1	3,318	27.7

The terminating event of the pursuit is tracked utilizing 11 different termination descriptions. Of the total 11,985 pursuits reported during the 2022 reporting period, 6,191 (51.7 percent) resulted in the apprehension of the fleeing suspect.

Statewide Apprehensions by Event Terminating Pursuit (6,191 Total Apprehensions)

Note: The percentages presented in this chart are the terminating events compared to the overall number of pursuits.

Statewide Nonapprehensions by Event Terminating Pursuit (5,606 Total Nonapprehensions)

Note: The percentages presented in this chart are the terminating events compared to the overall number of pursuits.

Note: In 2022, 188 Pursuit Reports (1.6 percent) did not report the event which terminated the pursuit.

The original violation is the reason for the initial enforcement action. Many pursuits begin as a result of officers taking enforcement action for an infraction, such as speeding, which is the most common originating violation. As evident by the various charges upon apprehension, pursuits may ensue because additional criminal activity exists, which is unknown to the officer at the time of pursuit initiation.

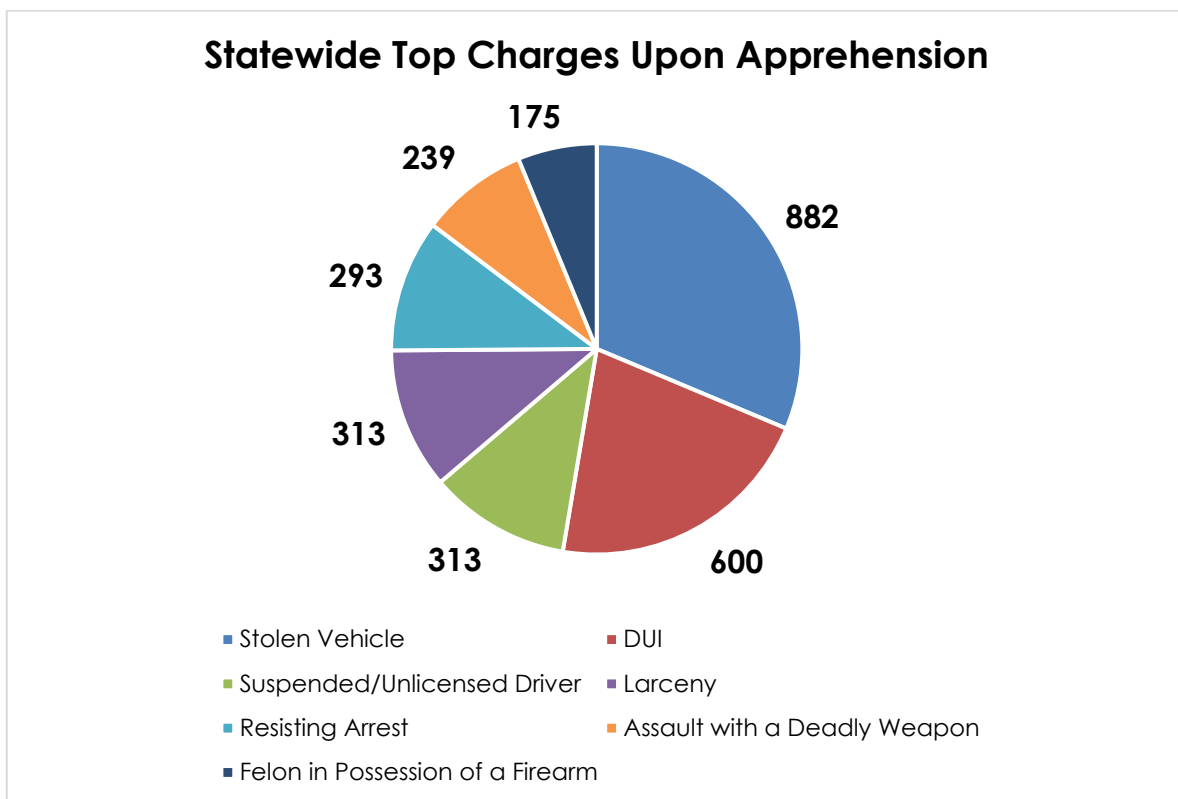

Vehicle theft is the second most common originating violation, and one of seven felony crimes ranked within the top 35 originating violations collected by the PRS database. The other felony offenses within the top 35 originating violations are burglary, assault with a deadly weapon, armed robbery, carjacking, child abuse/endangerment, and grand theft. All other violations are misdemeanor or infraction traffic violations. The top five violations initiating the enforcement stop leading to a suspect failing to yield are speeding, stolen vehicle, license plate/registration violations, red light/stop sign violations, and reckless driving. These originating violations account for 54.7 percent of all pursuits that occurred in 2022.

Although most pursuits are initiated for vehicle code violations, many suspects apprehended are charged with serious felony and misdemeanor crimes. In addition to evading arrest, the seven most common violations charged after the suspect was apprehended were stolen vehicle, driving under the influence (DUI), driving with a suspended license or while unlicensed, larceny, resisting arrest, assault with a deadly weapon, and felon in possession of a firearm.

Statewide Top Charges Upon Apprehension (Misdemeanor and Felony)

Crimes Charged	Number	% of Apprehensions	% of Pursuits

Resisting Arrest	293	4.7	2.4
Assault with a Deadly Weapon	239	3.9	2.0
Felon in Possession of a Firearm	175	2.8	1.5

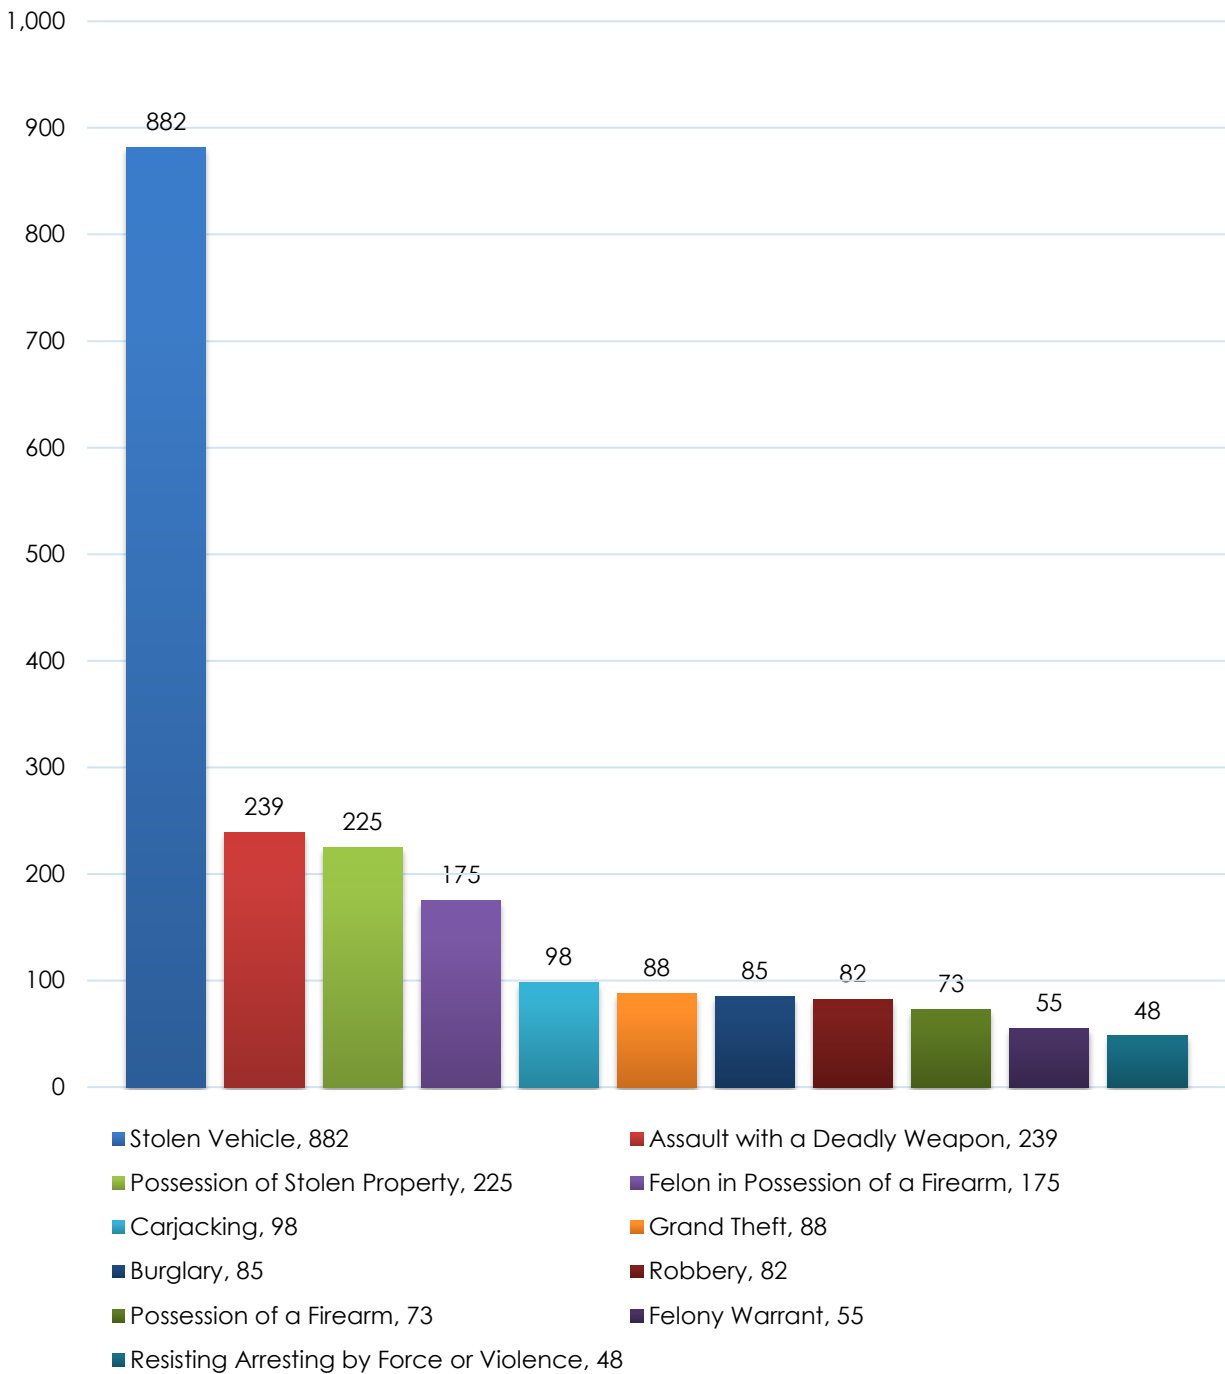

In addition to the top seven charges upon apprehension, the following felony crimes were also noted as the most serious charge in pursuits where the suspect was apprehended: burglary, robbery, carjacking, resisting arrest by force or violence, felony hit-and-run, grand theft, theft of firearm or automobile, and felony warrant. The following information represents the one crime identified by the pursuing agency as the most serious crime charged upon apprehension other than evading a peace officer. It should be noted these crimes may have been charged in other pursuits, but not identified as the most serious crime charged. For this reason, these statistics do not encompass all felony crimes charged at the conclusion of a pursuit, and incidents of the following felony crimes may be higher than the statistics indicated below:

Statewide Serious Felony Crimes Charged Upon Apprehension

Crimes	Number	% of Apprehensions	% of Pursuits
Stolen Vehicle	882	14.2	7.4
Assault with a Deadly Weapon	239	3.9	2.0

Statewide Serious Felony Crimes Charged Upon Apprehension

Of the 11,985 total pursuits, 2,050 (17.1 percent) involved a serious felony crime charged upon apprehension.

Part II: California Highway Patrol Pursuit Data

The CHP reported involvement in 3,736 vehicle pursuits in 2022 (including multiagency pursuits), which represents 31.2 percent of the pursuits reported. Of these, a total of 547 (14.6 percent) pursuits resulted in a crash. Of the reported crashes, 345 (63.1 percent) were property damage-only crashes, 187 (34.2 percent) were injury crashes, and 15 (2.7 percent) were fatal crashes.

2022 CHP-Involved Pursuits

Types of Crashes	Number of Pursuits	% of Total Pursuits	% of Total Crashes
Fatal Crash	15	0.4	2.7
Injury Crash	187	5.0	34.2
Noninjury Crash	345	9.2	63.1
No Crash	3,189	85.4
Total	3,736

The 15 fatal crashes resulted in a total of 15 deaths. Drivers of the suspect vehicle accounted for 13 (86.7 percent) of the deaths, 1 (6.7 percent) was a passenger in the pursued vehicle, and 1 (6.7 percent) was an uninvolved third party. There were no CHP officer deaths reported in CHP-involved pursuits during 2022.

The 187 injury crashes resulted in 316 individuals injured. Drivers of the suspect vehicle accounted for 150 (47.5 percent) of the injured individuals, 77 (24.4 percent) were passengers in the pursued vehicles, 79 (25.0 percent) were uninvolved third parties, and 10 (3.2 percent) were law enforcement officers.

CHP-Involved Pursuit Crash Fatalities

CHP-Involved Pursuit Crash Injuries

The terminating event of the CHP-involved pursuit is tracked utilizing 11 different termination descriptions. Of the 3,736 CHP-involved pursuits during the 2022 reporting period, 1,783 (47.7 percent) resulted in the apprehension of the fleeing suspect.

CHP-Involved Nonapprehensions by Event Terminating Pursuit (1,941 Total CHP-Involved Nonapprehensions)

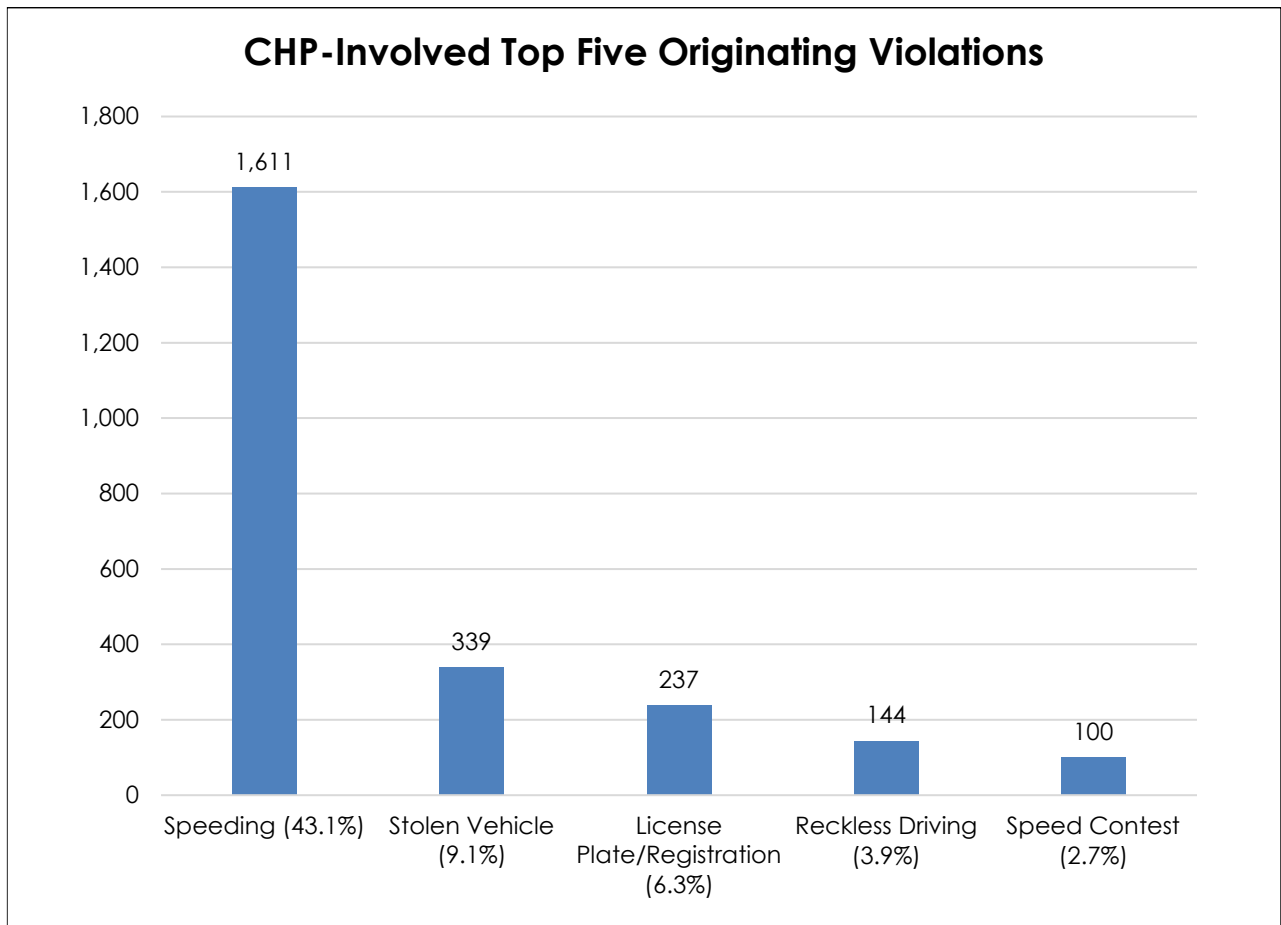

Note: The percentages presented in this chart are the terminating events compared to the overall number of CHP-involved pursuits.

Note: Twelve (0.3 percent) CHP-involved pursuits did not report the event terminating the pursuit. In those cases, the pursuit had been turned over to an allied agency and that field was not provided with the Allied Agency Pursuit Report.

The top five most frequent originating violations for CHP-involved pursuits are speeding, stolen vehicle, registration/license plate violations, reckless driving, and speed contest. The top five violations account for approximately 65.1 percent of all CHP-involved pursuits. Due to the nature of the CHP's traffic enforcement efforts on state highways, speeding is over seven times more prevalent as an originating violation than the average of the other four violations listed. Of the 1,611 originating violations for speeding, 551 were for speeding over 100 miles per hour (MPH). Of the 551 pursuits initiated for speeding over 100 MPH, 318 resulted in the apprehension of the suspect, and 233 did not result in the apprehension.

Stolen vehicle is the second most common originating violation, and one of five felony crimes ranked within the top 35 originating violations for CHP-involved pursuits during 2022. The other felony offenses within the top 35 originating violations are carjacking, burglary, assault with a deadly weapon, and robbery.

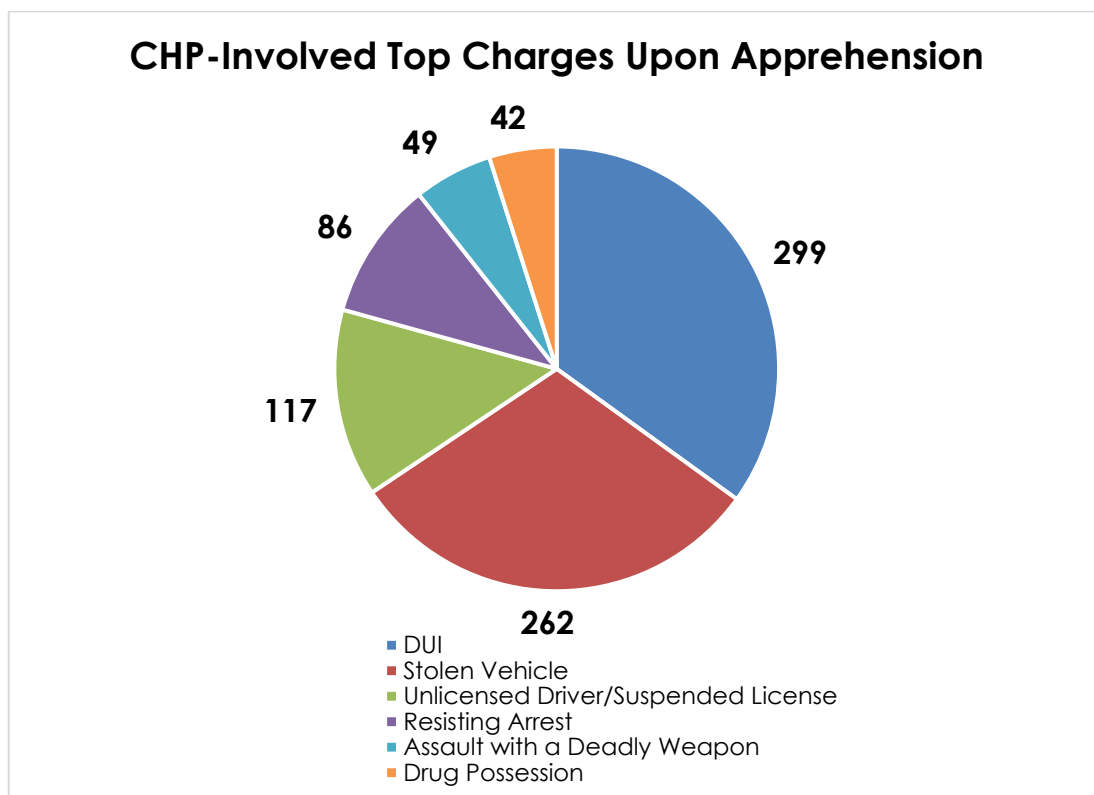

Although many pursuits are initiated for vehicle code violations, many suspects apprehended are charged with serious felony or misdemeanor crimes. In addition to evading arrest, the six most frequent crimes reported as the most serious charged upon apprehension are: DUI, stolen vehicle, driving with a suspended license or unlicensed, resisting arrest, assault with a deadly weapon, and drug possession. The most serious crime charged came from the above crimes in approximately 48.0 percent of all CHP-involved pursuit apprehensions that occurred in 2022.

CHP-Involved Top Charges Upon Apprehension (Misdemeanor and Felony)

Crime Charged	Number	% of Apprehensions	% of Pursuits
DUI	299	16.8	8.0
Stolen Vehicle	262	14.7	7.0
Unlicensed Driver/Suspended License	117	6.6	3.1
Resisting Arrest	86	4.8	2.3
Assault with a Deadly Weapon	49	2.7	1.3
Drug Possession	42	2.4	1.1

Charges filed upon apprehension also include serious felony crimes, such as: possession of a stolen vehicle, assault with a deadly weapon, felony warrant, felon in possession of a firearm, resisting arrest by force or violence, child endangerment/abuse, carjacking, drug possession for distribution, and felony hit-and-run. In CHP-involved pursuits, 26.8 percent of suspect apprehensions resulted in a charge for a serious felony crime. It should be noted these crimes may have been charged in other pursuits, but not identified as the most serious crime charged. For this reason, these statistics do not encompass all felony crimes charged at the conclusion of a pursuit, and incidents of the following felony crimes may be higher than the statistics indicated below.

Serious Felony Crimes Charged Upon Apprehension

Crimes	Number	% of Apprehensions	% of Pursuits
Stolen Vehicle	262	14.7	7.0
Assault with a Deadly Weapon	49	2.7	1.3
Felon in Possession of a Firearm	33	1.9	0.9
Possession of a Firearm	28	1.6	0.7
Felony Warrant	26	1.5	0.7
Child Endangerment/Abuse	23	1.3	0.6
Drug Possession for Distribution	19	1.1	0.5
Carjacking	16	0.9	0.4
Resisting Arrest by Force or Violence	12	0.7	0.3
Felony Hit-and-Run	9	0.5	0.2

CHP-Involved Serious Felony Crimes Charged Upon Apprehension

Of the 3,736 CHP-involved pursuits, 447 (11.9 percent) involved a serious felony crime charged upon apprehension.

Conclusion

Statewide, millions of enforcement stops are conducted every year by hundreds of law enforcement agencies. Only a small percentage of enforcement actions lead to a vehicle pursuit. In 2022, the CHP had approximately 2,437,292 public contacts. Of those contacts, 3,736 led to a pursuit; this represents 0.15 percent of public contacts.

The statewide 2022 data showed a decrease in the number of pursuits, as well as crashes. There were 11,985 pursuits in 2022, compared to 12,513 in 2021; and 2,275 crashes in 2022, compared to 2,519 in 2021. Additionally, the percentage of pursuits resulting in a crash decreased from 20.1 percent in 2021 to 19.0 percent in 2022, a decrease of 5.5 percent. These statistics support that while statewide police pursuits have decreased, through the utilization of law enforcement air support, direct supervision, and regular training, pursuits are increasingly mitigated in the safest manner possible to apprehend the fleeing suspect while considering both public and officer safety.

The CHP and statewide law enforcement agencies continue to research advanced technologies and pursuit policies that would continue to decrease crashes resulting from fleeing suspects and increase apprehension rates. When an air support unit was involved to observe the subject vehicle, apprehension rates increased from 46.6 percent to 78.6 percent.

As California's population changes along with the number of motorists utilizing California's roadway system, it is imperative for law enforcement agencies to continue providing adequate training to officers and maintain sound policies to increase public safety and better serve the community.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 719, Romero. Police pursuits.

(1) Existing law provides for compensation to crime victims, as specified, from the Restitution Fund, a continuously appropriated fund.

This bill would include as qualifying as a crime victim for those purposes, injury or death caused by any party where a peace officer is operating a motor vehicle in an effort to apprehend a suspect, and the suspect is evading, fleeing, or otherwise attempting to elude the peace officer.

By expanding the uses of a continuously appropriated fund, this bill would make an appropriation.

(2) Existing law requires the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training to implement a course or courses of instruction for the training of law enforcement officers in the handling of high-speed vehicle pursuits and to develop uniform, minimum guidelines for adoption by California law enforcement agencies for response to high-speed vehicle pursuits, as specified. Existing law expresses the intent of the Legislature that all local law enforcement agencies adopt those guidelines as a minimum for the agency's pursuit policy.

This bill, instead, would express the intent of the Legislature that each law enforcement agency adopt, promulgate, and require regular and periodic training consistent with an agency's specific pursuit policy that, at a minimum, complies with the commission's guidelines.

(3) Existing law specifies certain content for the California Driver's Handbook and examinations for a driver's license.

This bill would require the Department of Motor Vehicles, upon updating the handbook, to include at least one question in any of the noncommercial driver's license examinations of an applicant's knowledge and understanding to verify that the applicant has an understanding of the risks and punishments associated with eluding a pursuing peace officer's motor vehicle.

(4) Existing law makes it a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding 6 months, for any person while operating a motor vehicle to intentionally evade and willfully flee or otherwise attempt to elude a pursuing peace officer's motor vehicle or bicycle under certain conditions.

This bill would make that offense a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year. By increasing the punishment for a crime, this bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

(5) Existing law makes it a misdemeanor punishable by confinement in a county jail for not more than one year or a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 3, 4, or 5 years or a specified fine for any person who commits the offense described in (4) above and proximately causes serious bodily injury, as defined, or death to any person.

This bill would increase the term of imprisonment in the state prison as follows:

(a) A term of 3, 5, or 7 years or the specified fine, or both the fine and imprisonment where the offense involves serious bodily injury.

(b) A term of 4, 6, or 10 years in the state prison where the offense involves a death.

(6) Existing law establishes the California Traffic Safety Program, to include state and local programs, as specified.

This bill would require all traffic safety programs that receive state funds and that include public awareness campaigns involving emergency vehicle operations to include in the public awareness campaign, information on the risks to public safety of peace officer motor vehicle pursuits, and the penalties that may result from evading a peace officer.

(7) Existing law requires each state and local law enforcement agency to report to the Department of the California Highway Patrol, on a form approved by the department, certain specific vehicle pursuit data, including, but not limited to, certain required data.

This bill instead would require the department to develop and approve a paper or electronic form that includes additional data, and would require that the report be made to the department no later than 30 days following a police pursuit, thereby imposing a state-mandated local program by increasing the level of services imposed on local law enforcement agencies.

The bill would additionally require the Department of the California Highway Patrol to submit annually to the Legislature a report regarding motor vehicle pursuits.

(8) Existing law provides that any public agency employing peace officers that adopts a written policy on vehicular pursuits that meets certain minimum standards, as specified, shall be immune from liability for civil damages for personal injury to or death of any person or damage to property resulting from the collision of a vehicle being operated by an actual or suspected violator of the law who is being has been, or believes he or she is being or has been pursued by a peace officer employed by the public entity in a motor vehicle. Existing law makes the adoption of a vehicle pursuit policy pursuant to these provisions discretionary.

This bill would revise the minimum standards required for a written policy for the safe conduct of motor vehicle pursuits. These provisions would become operative on July 1, 2007.

(9) This bill also would incorporate additional changes in Section 13955 of the Government Code, to become operative only if AB 22 and this bill are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2006, and this bill is enacted last.

(10) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that with regard to certain mandates no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

With regard to any other mandates, this bill would provide that, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that the bill contains costs so mandated by the state, reimbursement for those costs shall be made pursuant to the statutory provisions noted above.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) Thousands of crime suspects flee each year often resulting in law enforcement officers in California engaging in motor vehicle pursuits. Many pursuits result in accidents, property damage, serious injuries, and death to innocent third parties, peace officers, and fleeing suspects.

(b) Motor vehicle pursuits of fleeing suspects present inescapable and inherent risks that sometimes offend public sensibilities.

(c) According to statistics from the National Highway Safety Administration, California has consistently led the nation in the past 20 years in fatalities from crashes involving these pursuits.

(d) California leads the nation in the number of innocent bystanders killed in these pursuits. A study by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration indicates that in 2003 there were 46 deaths in California that resulted from high speed police pursuits of fleeing suspects. Twelve of the 46 deaths were innocent bystanders. Eighteen were passengers in the pursued vehicle, 15 were fleeing suspects, and one was a peace officer.

(e) Pursuit driving is a dangerous activity that must be undertaken with due care and with the understanding of specific risks as well as the need for a realistic proportionate response to apprehend a fleeing suspect who poses a danger to the public.

(f) Current law provides that a person operating a motor vehicle who is negligent in its operation may be liable for civil damages pursuant to Section 17150 of the Vehicle Code.

(g) The primary function of all law enforcement agencies is to protect the public against personal injury, death, or property damage.

(h) It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation that guides instances where law enforcement pursuits are warranted so as to protect the public safety, lives, and property of the people of the State of California.

(i) It is also the intent of the Legislature to decrease peace officer motor vehicle pursuits through public education, enforcement, and regular and periodic training of peace officers.

(j) It is also the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to eliminate any unnecessary risks that evolve from peace officer motor vehicle pursuits, and to ensure that law enforcement pursuits are conducted in the safest and most effective approach throughout California.

SEC. 2. Section 13955 of the Government Code is amended to read:

SEC. 11. Section 17004.7 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

17004.7. (a) The immunity provided by this section is in addition to any other immunity provided by law. The adoption of a vehicle pursuit policy by a public agency pursuant to this section is discretionary.

(2) Promulgation of the written policy under paragraph (1) shall include, but is not limited to, a requirement that all peace officers of the public agency certify in writing that they have received, read, and understand the policy. The failure of an individual officer to sign a certification shall not be used to impose liability on an individual officer or a public entity.

(c) A policy for the safe conduct of motor vehicle pursuits by peace officers shall meet all of the following minimum standards:

(1) Determine under what circumstances to initiate a pursuit. The policy shall define a "pursuit," articulate the reasons for which a pursuit is authorized, and identify the issues that should be considered in reaching the decision to pursue. It should also address the importance of protecting the public and balancing the known or reasonably suspected offense, and the apparent need for immediate capture against the risks to peace officers, innocent motorists, and others to protect the public.

(2) Determine the total number of law enforcement vehicles authorized to participate in a pursuit. Establish the authorized number of law enforcement units and supervisors who may be involved in a pursuit, describe the responsibility of each authorized unit and the role of each peace officer and supervisor, and specify if and when additional units are authorized.

(B) Communications and notifications among the agencies involved.

(e) The requirements of subdivision (c) represent minimum policy standards and do not limit an agency from adopting additional policy requirements. The requirements in subdivision (c) are consistent with the 1995 California Law Enforcement Vehicle Pursuit Guidelines developed by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training pursuant to Section 13519.8 of the Penal Code that will assist agencies in the development of their pursuit policies. Nothing in this section precludes the adoption of a policy that limits or restricts pursuits.

(f) A determination of whether a public agency has complied with subdivisions (c) and (d) is a question of law for the court.

(g) This section shall become operative on July 1, 2007.

SEC. 12. Section 3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 13955 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and AB 22. However, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.
